

Dr Diane Dumashie FRICS
Chair Africa Task Force, FIG

Land Professionals Workshop on Evaluating Land Tools for Gender Equality

Session 1
19th – 20th June 2012 Nairobi

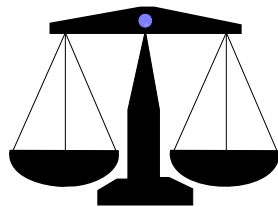

Overview

- I Icebreaker
- II Self-introduction
- III Expectations
- IV Training objectives
- V House Rules

WELCOME- Gender Equity

I Icebreaker

Where is everyone from? Who are they?

1. Who works with Wildlife?
2. Is there a Land surveyor in the house? _____
3. Who likes Pizza _____
4. Is there a Lawyer in the house? _____
5. Who travelled more than 12 hours? _____
6. Who has more than 3 children? _____
7. Who is from GLTN? _____
8. Anyone speaks French as their mother tongue? _____
9. Who speaks more than 3 languages? _____

II Self-introductions

Your name, and

On a post it note one/two expectations of this workshop...

IV The Task in Overview

Over the next 2 days training sessions to build Your:

- Understanding of Gender and Land
- How to Prepare, Evaluate and Validate

Using as our basis the GLTN

- Gender Evaluation Criteria for Large-scale Land Tools, and
- Rich experience from Pilots facilitated by grassroots groups

And....

- A session on Action planning

III Your Expectations

The 2-day Training Workshop

Wednesday	Thursday
Opening What is the Gender Evaluation Criteria? Preparing to do a Gender Evaluation How the preparation was done in Uganda Doing the actual Gender Evaluation How the evaluation was undertaken in Ghana	Reflections Validating the findings from the Gender Evaluation The validation experience in Uganda Applying the Evaluation Criteria in the design of new tools/activities Action Planning Closing
Cocktail! 18.30 PM at Comfort Gardens

IV Our Process

How we get there:

- It is about Participation - a fundamental mechanism of GLTN
- It is about Your own Lens, your own Voice
- It is about Learning,
 - a) for you to disseminate in your own countries (place of work and change agents), and
 - b) Confidence to make a difference using your experiences of this week

V House Rules

- Active Listening.....
- Respect for each other
- Openness & Inclusiveness
- Willingness to Learn & Peer Learning
- Only one person will speak at a time
- Judgement free – no sexist, racist, or other discriminatory language etc.
- Self management in times of disagreement.
- Mobile phones/ Laptops

Fun !

