

Global Land Tool Network Phase 4 2023-2027

PROGRAMME DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

PROGRAMME DEVELOPMENT ROADMAP

GLTN PHASE 4 PROGRAMME

PHASE 1

- GLTN developed an innovative, inclusive approach and methodology for understanding land tenure security via the Continuum of Land Rights.

PHASE 2

- GLTN has fostered partnerships for country-level implementation. It has overseen the intensive testing and improvement of tools in a variety of different contexts and the development of capacity for implementation at scale.

PHASE 3

- GLTN developed more institutionalized approaches and strategic interventions to scale up tools for country-wide implementations and impacts.

PHASE 4

- GLTN will continue the work on tool validation and implementation, while strengthening its global normative impact in multilateral agreements and human rights treaties

GLTN PHASE 4 PROGRAMME – APPROACH

1. Focus on opening new opportunities for engagement in countries and regions where GLTN is not yet active in a significant manner.
2. Shift the focus from tool development to tool testing, evaluation, and refinement by prioritizing specific tool implementation and application.
3. Strengthen the importance of land tenure security and land property rights and their global normative impact in multilateral agreements and human rights treaties by scaling up the investment in influencing policy and discourse on land governance at the international level
4. More consistent and coordinated engagement at the regional and international level around a set of key strategic areas of intervention and selected commitments

- The inter-relationship between land tenure security and protection of natural resources in multilateral environmental agreements

Given the evidence of strong linkages between tenure insecurity and climate vulnerability, improved tenure security is an important enabler of climate-change adaptation and natural resources protection.

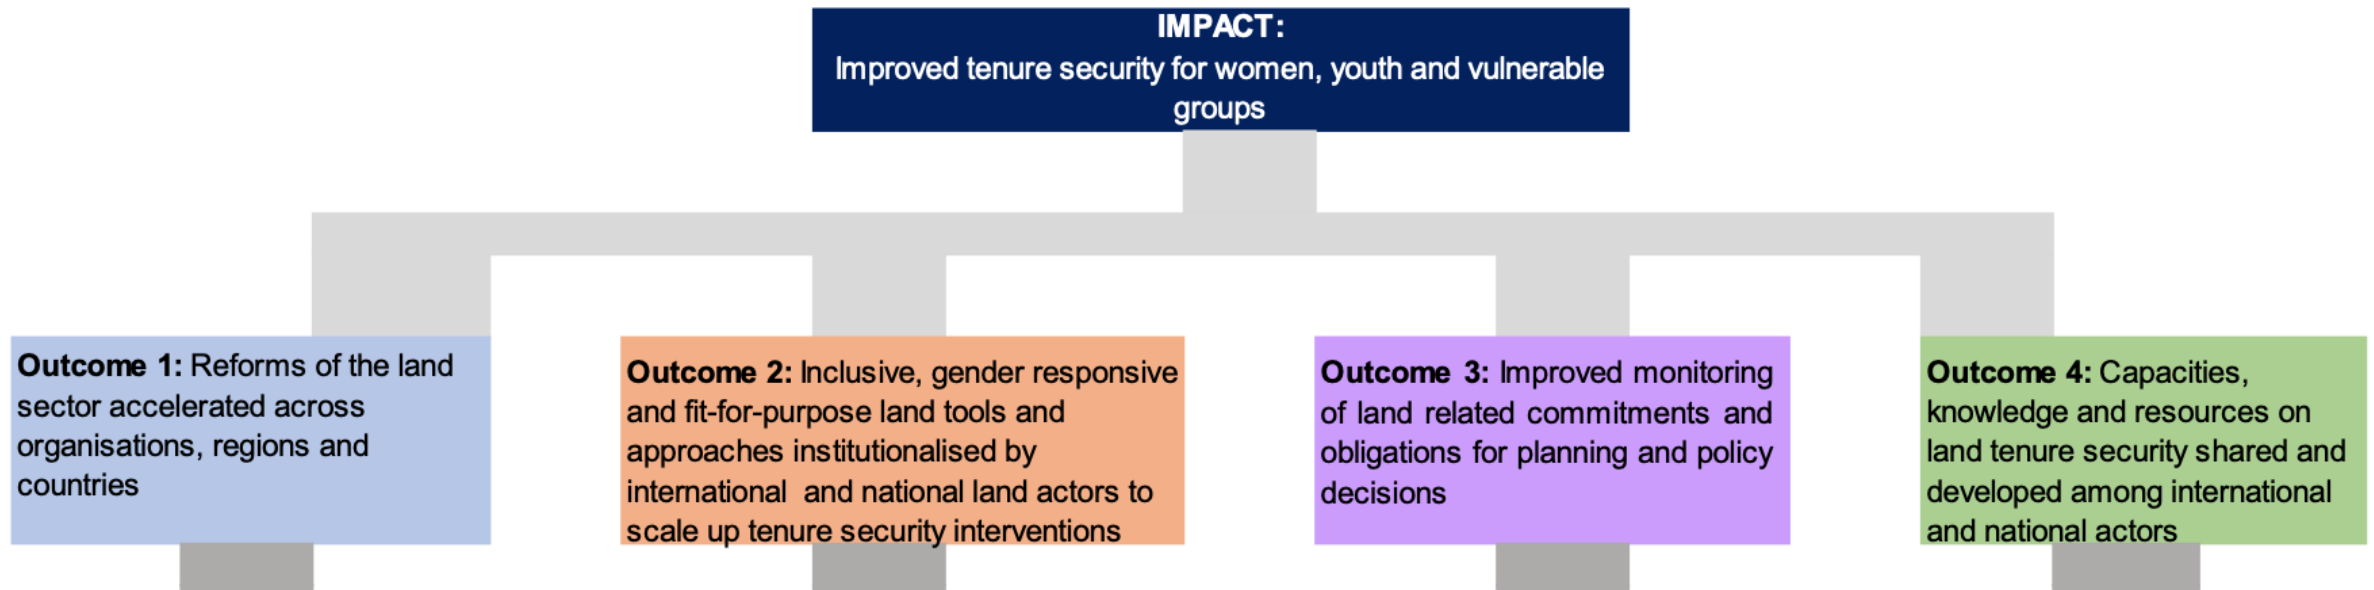

Phase 4 programme will invest in strengthening the land rights of women, youth and vulnerable groups in multilateral environmental agreements to advance tenure-responsive land-use planning and climate-smart agriculture that reduce land degradation and adverse climate change impacts.

- The inter-relationship between land property rights and inclusive socioeconomic development in multilateral agreements and human rights treaties

Strengthening the property rights of poor people can make important contributions to poverty reduction. Phase 4 programme will continue to invest in the development and implementation of tools to provide land and property rights and tenure security in these contexts, with the goal of improving land management and tenure systems based on human rights standards for inclusive socioeconomic development, access to adequate housing, and improved living conditions.

- Continue phase 3 priorities on urban development and humanitarian – development nexus

GLTN PHASE 4 PROGRAMME – IMPACT AND OUTCOMES

Vision: A world in which everyone enjoys secure land and property rights.

Mission: Partners working together to develop and implement inclusive fit-for-purpose and gender-responsive land tools to improve living conditions for all including women, youth and vulnerable groups in both urban and rural settings.
